At 12.40p.m. on December 10, C.P.C. 1579 brought to the Station a female named Zung Wong Sz, whom he arrested on East Yuhang Road, at the instigation of an informer of the P.S. Bureau named Kao Jang Ming.

Enquiries ascertained that the above female is alleged to be chief of the Woman's Department of Central Committee of the Chinese Communist Party and sought by the P.S. Bureau. At 9a.m. 10-12-33, the informer who is in the employ of Pang Kung Jao, a Nanking Political Agent, proceeded to Chapei with instruction to arrest the above female and bring her to the P.S. Bureau Nantao. The informer succeeded in locating the wanted female, but she refused to accompany him, and as a form of compromise female's brother Wong Sih Ling agreed to proceed to Nantao and go guarantor for his sister. While on their way, the informer and the brother entered the International Settlement by mistake, and on reaching E. Yuhang Rd, the brother refused to proceed any further, so the informer called C.P.C. 1579 for assistance. At this juncture, the wanted female appeared

REPORT OF POLICE INVESTIGATIONS.

The following is the statement of Zung Wang Sz (王 王) 28 years, native of Shanghai, taken by me D.I. Everest, at Wayside Stn., on the 10-12-33 and interpreted by D.I. Kuh Pao-hua.

My name is Zung Wang Sz. I am age 28 and a native of Shanghai. I received no education and between the ages of 8 and 22 was employed as a worker in the Sung Sing No. 9 Cotton Mill, Yangtszepoo Road. In April 1927, I was married to Zung Shu Kong (陳 許 氏), a native of Changsha, Hunan. Following our marriage, we resided with my family at No. 29 Yao Kao Jao (姚 高 郊), Chapei, and my husband worked as an assistant in a wine shop in Chapei. In April 1929, on the request of his parents, my husband ^{proceeded} ~~returned~~ to Changsha, Hunan. He did not ^{to Shanghai} return until October 1932. He was then unable to obtain any work and resided with me in my mother's house. Two months later, he left home and I have not seen him since. I do not know what happened to him and I have received no news of his whereabouts. I do not know whether or not my husband is connected with any political party. While my husband was in Changsha, he sent money for my support but since his disappearance in Dec., 1932, I have been supported by my younger brother named Wong Sih Ling (王 錫 林) who is a Taoist monk. My brother also lives at 29 Yao Ka Jao, Chapei.

I am not a member of the Communist Party and apart from being a member of the Sung Sing Cotton Mill Workers Union I have never belonged to any organization. I was not interested in any way in the mill workers union and did not occupy any official position.

At about 8 a.m. today, (Dec. 10) a man came to my home at 29 Yao Kao Jao and said he was from the Chinese Police Station. He spoke to my younger brother Wong Sih Ling and myself, and requested us to accompany him to the police station. He did not say for what reason but after some argument, my brother consented to accompany him. They left the house together shortly after 10a.m. but before they had gone very far my brother refused to go any further. They quarrelled in the street and some neighbours came and told me of the affair. I went to East Yu'ing Road, which is in the Settlement, and there I found my brother and the other man, whom I have since learnt is a Public Safety Bureau informer. On seeing me, the informer released my brother and called a Settlement policeman to take me to the Station. I can think of no reason for my arrest and I am positive that I have never seen the informer before today.
